

the Harris County Precinct 7 Constable Office, a member of the Scottish Rite Masonic Lodge, and a member of the Houston Baptist Minister's Association.

Madam Speaker, on this Father's Day, I ask my colleagues and people of Houston to honor the Reverend Dr. Joe E. Dancy, Sr. for his dedication to his family, the people of Houston, and St. James Missionary Baptist Church.

TRIBUTE TO CHRISTOPHER TROUVÉ, COLONEL, UNITED STATES ARMY

HON. BART STUPAK

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 2008

Mr. STUPAK. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay special tribute to a man who has served our Nation with dignity, pride, and honor. With that in mind, I ask that all of my colleagues join me in celebrating the retirement of Colonel Christopher Trouvé of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. Colonel Trouvé will retire on June 25, 2008 after a distinguished 25-year career with the United States Army.

Col. Christopher Trouvé was born in Nürnberg, Germany on February 4, 1961, as one of the three children of Lt. Col. (Retired) Raymond and Clare Trouvé, while his father was serving as a captain in the U.S. Army. Christopher grew up traveling the world until his father retired from the Army and settled the family in Sault Ste. Marie. Christopher attended and subsequently graduated from the Sault Area High School.

Colonel Trouvé began his military career at Michigan State University through an Army Reserve Officer Training Corps scholarship. Following graduation, as a Distinguished Military Graduate, Colonel Trouvé was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Field Artillery branch of the Army.

Following in his father's footsteps, Christopher attended the Officer Rotary Wing Aviator Course at Fort Rucker, Alabama. After graduating from flight school, Christopher was assigned to the 159th Aviation Support Helicopter Battalion, 101st Airborne Division. It was during this first unit assignment that he was promoted to captain, developed his skills as a combat aviator and combined arms tactician, and was recognized by the Army's Aviation Resource Management Survey Team for managing a "superior" flight operation.

In August 1987, he volunteered for duty as the Operations Officer for the Aviation Company of the Logistics Support Unit, Sinai, Egypt in support of the Multinational Force and Observers. Shortly thereafter he took command of Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 7th Battalion, 101st Aviation Regiment (Heavy Lift) and deployed the unit to Saudi Arabia in support of Operation Desert Shield.

During Operation Desert Storm, Colonel Trouvé flew as a Night Vision Goggle Combat Crew Pilot-in-Command of a CH-47D heavy lift helicopter. During this tour he flew more than 60 hours in combat missions. For his service and leadership, he was awarded two Air Medals and the Bronze Star.

During his career, Colonel Trouvé also took command of the Charlie Company, 228th

Aviation Regiment, the Alpha Company "Predators," 7th Battalion, 101st Aviation Regiment, and the 2d Battalion (Heavy Lift), 52d Aviation Regiment "Nightmare." As a commander, Christopher provided leadership, innovation, and inspiration in operations, training, and maintenance. He helped his crews increase night vision goggle flying time, sustain high operation tempos, and maintain high operational readiness.

Christopher earned a Master of Arts in Management at the Command and General Staff College in 1997 and was promoted to Colonel in October 2005 while attending the Air War College, where he graduated with a Master's Degree in Strategic Studies.

Colonel Trouvé is currently serving in his final assignment as the Deputy Director, Technology Management Office, Office of the Chief of Staff at the Pentagon where he is responsible for oversight of all Secretary of the Army-designated sensitive activities.

Madam Speaker, Colonel Christopher Trouvé has served the U.S. Army with distinction for 25 years. During his career as a commissioned officer, Colonel Trouvé has flown almost 2,500 hours and earned the distinction as a Master Army Aviator. In 2002, he was inducted into the Honorable Order of Saint Michael, Bronze Award by the Army Aviation Association of America for "outstanding contributions to the community of Army Aviation."

On June 25, 2008, family, friends, and fellow members of the Army will gather to celebrate a well-deserved retirement for Colonel Christopher Trouvé. As Christopher prepares to enter retirement, I offer him, his wife Nancy, and his two sons all the best for the future. I ask, Madam Speaker, that you and the entire U.S. House of Representatives join me in thanking Colonel Christopher Trouvé for his service to the United States Army and our Nation and in commending him for the many years of his life he has spent in service to others.

IN MEMORY OF HAZEL HARVEY PEACE

HON. MICHAEL C. BURGESS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 2008

Mr. BURGESS. Madam Speaker, I rise today to remember Hazel Harvey Peace and her extraordinary career in educating and enriching the lives of many African-American children and adults in Forth Worth, Texas.

Born August 4, 1907, Ms. Peace served the African-American community for 46 years as teacher, debate team coach, counselor, Dean of Girls and Vice Principal of I.M. Terrell High School. After retiring from this historically recognized institution, she spent an additional 9 years as Coordinator of Financial Aid and was subsequently promoted to Director of Student Affairs at Bishop College in Dallas. She is credited with having increased recruitment efforts for scores of African-American students to colleges and universities around the country.

In addition, Hazel Harvey Peace became the woman for whom the children's section of Fort Worth's main public library is named. Most recently, the University of North Texas honored her with the Hazel Harvey Peace Professorship. This professorship has the distinction as the first such honor to be named for an African-American woman at a 4-year, State-funded institution in Texas.

Ms. Peace passed away Sunday, June 8, 2008, at the age of 100 years and leaves generations of students who will gather to celebrate her life and legacy. She will always be remembered as an educator who had a passion to inspire and a zest to mentor students through her dedication to education. Her lifelong commitment and impact has touched thousands across the State of Texas as well as those across this vast Nation. We are truly indebted to her legacy.

HONORING THE REVEREND JOHNNIE JEFFERSON ROBerson
ON FATHER'S DAY

HON. AL GREEN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 2008

Mr. AL GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, this Father's Day, I would like to honor a man who exemplifies what it means to be an excellent father—a man who is a community leader, an upstanding and moral man, and a positive role model for our youth. The Reverend Johnnie Jefferson Roberson, who lives in my congressional district, has done great things, and I am proud to express my congratulations to him for all he has done for our community.

Earlier this year, Reverend Roberson marked the semi-centennial of the Mt. Hebron Missionary Baptist Church, of which he was a founder and organizer. Reverend Roberson has shown tremendous loyalty to his church, serving as the pastor of Mt. Hebron to this day. Under Reverend Roberson's leadership, Mt. Hebron has expanded and strengthened greatly and now has over 1,000 families as members. Along with his service to Mt. Hebron, Reverend Roberson also has served his country, serving in the United States Army during World War II. In commemoration of Reverend Roberson's great work, he received an NAACP Leadership Award in 2005, and I believe that he deserves recognition from all of us.

Reverend Roberson has long been a valued member of community, and rightly so. On this occasion of Father's Day, I would like to recognize Reverend Roberson for all of his accomplishments and urge people across America to look to leaders such as Reverend Roberson as role models for their work in inspiring and engaging our youth to live productive, positive lives.

CONGRATULATING MR. RICHARD
E. WITTEN

HON. NITA M. LOWEY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 2008

Mrs. LOWEY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the accomplishments of Mr. Richard E. Witten and to congratulate him on receiving the Anne Frank Distinguished Advocate Award. Mr. Witten's deep commitment to education and the Jewish experience is unparalleled.

A graduate of Columbia College and Harvard Law School, Richard began his career practicing corporate securities law in New York City. In 1981, he began working at Goldman Sachs and Co. where he rose to Partner and Managing Director from 1990 to 2002. Currently the Senior Managing Director of The Orienta Group, an investment and advisory firm, Richard also serves on the Board of Directors of Jets.com, a jet charter company with offices in New York City, Boston and Phoenix.

Richard contributes to and advocates on behalf of a number of charitable causes, several of which are educational institutions. He is a Vice Chairman of the Columbia University Board of Trustees and a member of the Board of the Columbia Investment Management Company. He is the Chairman Emeritus of the Board Visitors of Columbia College, a Trustee of the National Museum of Jewish History in Philadelphia, and a member of the Executive Committee of Gilda's Club of Westchester.

Mr. Witten has balanced his distinguished career and philanthropic work with an equally impressive family life. He and his wife, Lisa, live in Mamaroneck, New York. They have three children, Anne, Alex and Jeffrey. A gifted writer, Richard recently published his first novel, Divided Loyalties, a historically accurate depiction of his father-in-law's experience during the Second World War.

Additionally, through their private foundation, Richard and his wife have also provided the primary funding for iTeach, a program developed by Massachusetts General Hospital and Partners Aid Research Centre to improve delivery of HIV and TB care in South Africa.

Madam Speaker, I am proud to recognize my good friend Mr. Richard E. Witten for a successful career in finance and unparalleled devotion to charitable causes. I urge my colleagues to join me in honoring his tremendous accomplishments.

HONORING THE REVEREND ELBERT R. CURVEY ON FATHER'S DAY

HON. AL GREEN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 2008

Mr. AL GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, this Father's Day, I would like to honor a man who exemplifies what it means to be an excellent father—a man who is a community leader, an upstanding and moral man, and a positive role model for our youth. The Reverend Elbert R. Curvey, who lives in my congressional district, has done great things, and I am proud to express my congratulations to him for all he has done for our community.

Reverend Curvey is a veritable fixture of the Sunny Side community of Houston. He has been the pastor of the Sunny Side Missionary Baptist Church since 1960 and has overseen strengthening of the congregation over the years. Reverend Curvey has made a point over his lifetime of improving the lives of our young people. He taught for years at Harper Junior High and Clinton Park Elementary, where he served as a tremendous role model for his students. He continued in the Houston Independent School District for decades, eventually becoming Assistant Superintendent.

Reverend Curvey's work in helping our youth through avenues ranging from academic to religious is truly a shining example to behold.

Reverend Curvey has long been a valued member of community, and rightly so. On this occasion of Father's Day, I would like to recognize Reverend Curvey for all of his accomplishments and urge people across America to look to leaders such as Reverend Curvey as role models for their work in inspiring and engaging our youth to live productive, positive lives.

HONORING OFFICER ERIC D. HITE OF TUCSON, ARIZONA, POLICE DEPARTMENT

HON. GABRIELLE GIFFORDS

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 2008

Ms. GIFFORDS. Madam Speaker, I am honored to acknowledge today the exceptional life and public service of Eric D. Hite, an officer with the Tucson Police Department who was tragically killed in the line of duty on June 1st, 2008.

Officer Hite was known as "a cop's cop." He was dedicated, loyal and brave—everything we expect from a law enforcement officer. He took a solemn oath to protect and serve his community. When danger arose on the streets of Tucson early that Sunday morning, Officer Hite wasted no time in responding. "Without hesitation, he ran to that call, ran towards danger," explained Tucson Police Chief Richard Miranda at Officer Hite's funeral. "He gave up his life so that others can live free."

Officer Hite was 43 years old at the time of his death. He is survived by his wife, daughter, son, parents, countless friends and colleagues and a grieving community. For four years, Officer Hite proudly wore the uniform of the Tucson Police Department. For 21 years before joining the department, he served with distinction in the United States Air Force. Officer Hite's entire adult life was spent in the service of his country and his community and for that we all owe him a tremendous debt of gratitude.

Every day, thousands of men and women like Officer Hite put their lives on the line in the name of something bigger than themselves. They risk everything for an ideal—the ideal of protecting American freedoms and rule of law. The death of Officer Hite is evidence of the ultimate sacrifice that can come from that ideal.

On June 10th, more than 3,000 mourners attended a service to pay their respects to Officer Hite. Following the service, thousands more lined the streets to salute him as the funeral cortege passed by. Befitting how he lived his life, Officer Hite's funeral service was attended by law enforcement personnel from every police department in Arizona and was filled with touching military and police ceremonies. His coffin was carried by colleagues in dress uniforms and an honor guard representing every law enforcement agency saluted as he passed. There were many moving eulogies but it was his son Roy who best captured the life and legacy of Officer Hite: "He always knew what was right—what was the right thing to do, the right thing to say and the right way to act."

I ask the House of Representatives to join with me in extending condolences to the family and friends of Officer Hite and in thanking him for his great sacrifice as he courageously carried out his duty to protect and serve. His life is an inspiration to us all and he will never be forgotten.

HONORING THE REVEREND FRED McNACK ON FATHER'S DAY

HON. AL GREEN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 2008

Mr. AL GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, this Father's Day, I would like to honor a man who exemplifies what it means to be an excellent father—a man who is a community leader, an upstanding and moral man, and a positive role model for our youth. The Reverend Fred McNack, who lives in my congressional district, has done great things, and I am proud to express my congratulations to him for all he has done for our community.

Reverend McNack has served as the pastor of Houston's Unity in God Missionary Baptist Church for the last 38 years. He also served his community well as the Associate Pastor of Christian Faith Missionary Baptist Church for 10 years. Not only has Reverend McNack shown admirable dedication to his faith, he also served our country in the United States Navy from 1941 to 1945 during World War II. It is safe to say that Reverend McNack has lived the kind of life that would serve as a good example to our young people of how to serve one's community and country.

Reverend McNack has long been a valued member of community, and rightly so. On this occasion of Father's Day, I would like to recognize Reverend McNack for all of his accomplishments and urge people across America to look to leaders such as Reverend McNack as role models for their work in inspiring and engaging our youth to live productive, positive lives.

HONORING THE SERVICE OF THE FIRE AND RESCUE WORKERS OF McDOWELL COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

HON. HEATH SHULER

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 12, 2008

Mr. SHULER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the exemplary service of the fire and rescue workers of McDowell County, North Carolina, who work tirelessly to ensure the safety of our families and homes. I specially want to offer tribute to the fire and rescue workers, many of which are volunteers, who have been honored with awards from the McDowell Fire and Rescue Association.

Since colonial times predating the birth of the nation, volunteer groups have banded together to form brigades to protect towns and cities from fire and other types of devastation. Benjamin Franklin, one of this nation's founders, was also responsible for the creation of the first volunteer fire department in Philadelphia in 1735.
